Update from Councilwoman McNamara – Nothing new to report

Mat Rats - Al Smith spoke about the program and asked Recreation to sponsor the club by giving them insurance like they have done in the past. He explained that they all had their background checks and he believed that was one of the reasons last year the Borough couldn't help them with the insurance.

Councilwoman McNamara asked where the program was held; in the school. Councilwoman stated she would check to see if the money had to go through the Borough. R. Kahane stated that she would send an email asking the Borough to issue the insurance for this program.

Email regarding Cedar Street Field from Mr. Jamandron stating he no longer needed the field for the fall

No further information is needed. There is no one that is utilizing the field at this time.

Recreation Committee Polo Shirts – update (R. Kahane) – no update

CPR Class – confirmation on dates – D. Quinn was not present will be carried to the November meeting

Trunk or Treat – update (candy and glow sticks order/ PO for Pizza sent in)

DPW will set up the movie with the caution tape. R. Kahane will hand out flyers and notify the school regarding the event. D. Nellis will place on electronic sign and share on facebook.

5K Race – After event

- Frames for certificates have been delivered. Discussion regarding Certificate that would be handed out to the sponsors.

N. Jones asked about the certificate for the thank you. N. Jones asked if the Borough wanted to continue to have the race in the future.

N. Jones reported that they had 424 runners, 371 finished and 20 didn't pick up their numbers. There was discussion regarding ordering T-shirts for the volunteers. N. Jones mentioned that the recreation tent is missing the last time it was used was the SK8 Jam. She would double check with D. Quinn to make sure it is not in the storage unit.

N. Jones asked if anyone had the signs for the events; R. Kahane stated she had them.

N. Jones asked to schedule a date to discuss the race and what would be needed in the future. The committee for the race should be included: N. Jones, M. Holtz, R. Kahane, A. Jennings, E. Hill, Administrator, Councilmember McNamara and Chairman Quinn. The meeting was scheduled for Wednesday at 6pm.
